

ABOUT THE ARCADE

The Arcade isn't just a revitalized historic point-of-pride for downtown Dayton. It's a one-of-its-kind innovation center aimed to drive Dayton into the future. We're a hybrid space for visitors and businesses to coexist and feed off of each other's passions. The Arcade is more than a collection of incredible buildings; The Arcade is a gathering space for fostering unique connections to develop the ideas, partnerships, and organizations that will enrich the Dayton community.

Nearly 250 students from the University of Dayton in the College of Arts and Sciences, School of Business, School of Engineering, and Institute of Applied Creativity for Transformation (IACT), are taking in-person classes at The Hub.

Our newly renovated space in the Dayton Arcade, aims to link students with member businesses, encourage creative thinking, and is one of the largest university-anchored innovation hubs in the country. The Hub was intentionally designed to be more immersive than other innovation centers backed by universities, by integrating students in the experience.

The Entrepreneurs' Center (EC) is a modern economic development organization that powers progress and prosperity through entrepreneurship. Annually, the EC works with over 1,000 brilliant entrepreneurs to start and grow companies, create jobs, generate revenue, and attract investment. The EC empowers startups and small businesses in technology, lifestyle, and research sectors.

WHAT IS THE HUB?

The Hub Dayton is a joint venture of The Entrepreneurs' Center and University of Dayton; The Hub offers coordinated and centralized resources for the region's entrepreneurs, innovators, builders, creators, inventors, students & teachers.

The Hub is composed of several member organizations that provide a variety of resources and services. To learn who else is in the space, please visit www.thehubdayton.com for our leasing map and member directory.

MORE RESOURCES

The Ohio Small Business Development Center (SBDC) at the Entrepreneurs' Center helps people start, sustain and grow their businesses.

The GWDI is designed to serve as a pathway for neighborhood entrepreneurs and innovators into the region's startup ecosystem. The GWDI can offer micro-lending services, networking opportunities, training and education, consulting services, and additional resources to startups and underrepresented firms.
